

ПРОМОЦИЈА НА КНИГА

The promotion of the book entitled MIGRATION, KNOWLEDGE EXCHANGE AND ACADEMIC CULTURES IN EUROPE AND THE BLACK SEA REGION UNTIL WORLD WAR I, edited by prof. d-r Biljana Ristovska-Josifovska, and published by the Institute of National History (Skopje, 2021), was held on 31 May 2022 at the Museum of the Macedonian Struggle for Independence in Skopje. The promoters of the book were: academician Dragi Ćorgiev, who spoke in general about the idea of migration and knowledge exchange as the subject of this book, and prof. d-r Vladimir Janev, who presented the content of the book in more detail. The book is the result of an International Conference “Knowledge Exchange in Academic Cultures through Migration Between and within Europe and the Black Sea Region (Until World War I and Its Aftermaths)”, held in Skopje on 11 and 12 January 2019, within the international project “Knowledge Exchange and Academic Cultures in the Humanities: Europe and the Black Sea Region, Late 18th – 21st Centuries” (Horizon2020). As the publication was prepared and printed with financial support of the aforementioned project, the editor made a special reference to it in her address to the audience.
